Million Signed For New Bridge

Money Allotted to Purchase Land Sites For Newburgh-Beacon River Span

Among bills signed today by Democratic Governor Averell Harriman was one authorizing the state to advance a million dollars to the Bridge Authority to acquire property for construction of the Newburgh-Beacon Bridge.

In signing the bill sponsored by Assemblyman R. Watson Pomeroy, Poughkeepsie Republican, the Governor said the measure "marks a great accomplishment for the people in the Newburgh-Beacon area."

Last February 5, Assemblyman Pomeroy introduced a bill at Albany calling for construction of the bridge at a cost of $36 million. He said he drew up the legislation after conferring with John Stillman, Orange county member of the Bridge Authority. Stillman since has been elected chairman of the Authority.

In its annual report, the Authority indicated that a four-lane span for the site would cost $34,700,000. A four-lane span is necessary, it was considered, because the bridge will become part of a federal route system.

Hudson Falls, N. Y., April 27 —The General Electric Co., only hours after a spokesman had predicted a "long, bitter and costly" strike, said it expected a quick end to walkouts at plants here and in nearby Fort Edward.

The company said last night that officials of Local 332, United Electrical Workers Union, Independent, had asked for reopening of negotiations Monday in "a piece-work dispute that touched off the walkouts Wednesday."

No Union Comment
There was no union comment. GE also said without elaboration that a back-to-work movement was under way.

Earlier yesterday, a GE spokesman had said the two plants, normally closed for the weekend Friday night, would not reopen Monday unless enough workers reported to "maintain operations in an orderly manner."

"A long, bitter and costly strike appears to be in the cards," the spokesman said. Donald Van Vorce, business agent of Local 332, United Electrical Workers Union, Independent, said yesterday the union members had left their jobs voluntarily. The union claims to (Continued on Page 10, Col. 5)

Wants More Talks
Saying "this may take a few days," Dixon adjourned the debate to a date to be fixed by agreement of council members.

E. Ronald Walker of Australia and Guillaume Georges-Picot of France had suggested that the council should arrange for further negotiations toward an international canal agreement, but no resolution calling for that action was introduced. A French spokesman said "you don't need a resolution" to get talks going again.

Egypt nationalized the 103-mile Red-to-Mediterranean canal last July 26, taking it away from the Suez Canal Co. Recent talks on future operation have been between the United States and Egypt.

Would Bar Israel
The Egyptian declaration pledges the Cairo government to observe the 1888 Constantinople convention for freedom of Suez navigation within the limits set therein. Egypt interprets this to mean it can continue to bar Israeli ships under security provisions of the convention.

The declaration says Egypt will operate the canal, collect the tolls, set aside 5 per cent for government royalties and 25 per cent for improvements, and negotiate on any toll increase higher than 1 per cent a year.

Turns Clock Ahead—Betty Jean Radell, 3, wants to be on time Sunday, so she pushes her favorite clock ahead an hour to prepare for Daylight Saving Time, which begins tomorrow at 2 a. m. Don't forget to fix your clocks before retiring tonight. Betty Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene J. Radell, RD 1, Kingston, likes the 50-year-old timepiece she's adjusting so she fixes it first. But, she'll push her little alarm clock an hour ahead too. And, you had better take her tip if you plan getting to church on time. (Freeman photo).

June Is Month To Give Guns, No Questions
June will be statewide Gun Amnesty Month under terms of a bill signed by Gov. Harriman today.

The measure grants immunity from prosecution to persons who possess pistols or other dangerous weapons if they turn them in between June 1 and 30.

The county sheriffs and city police will accept weapons, with no questions asked. The idea is to get them out of circulation.

Sen. Frank J. Pino, Brooklyn Democrat, sponsored the bill. It was among 18 measures that Harriman signed today—he also vetoed 16—as the governor drove to complete action on pending measures before Monday midnight. That's when the legal, 30-day bill-signing period ends.

156th Will Hold Open House Week Beginning Sunday
Beginning with an all-day training session Sunday, starting at 8 a. m. for all units of the 156th Field Artillery Battalion, New York National Guard, "Open House" will be observed at the Army next week.

A movie night, Open House dance and tour of facilities have been arranged for the public.

Is Statewide
Major General Ronald C. Brock, chief of staff to the Governor, today announced that over 100 New York State armories, airbases and naval militia installations, camps and other state military facilities will hold "open house" for the public during the week of April 28 to May 5, as part of the State-wide "Open House" to be held throughout every department and agency of the State government, as previously announced by Governor Averell Harriman.

General Brock said that "here in New York we have over 30,000 officers and men performing military service in the defense of their State and nation, at our installations spread throughout the state. The public is invited to visit our facilities and inspect our equipment."

Major Arthur H. Marx, acting commanding officer of the 156th Field Artillery Battalion, issued a special invitation to young men and their parents and friends to visit the local armory, located on North Manor avenue, Kingston (Continued on Page 10, Col. 7)

Roundup Is Made of Leftists

Courts May Try Extremist Units
Amman, Jordan, April 27 (AP)—Jordan's new government set up military courts today to try cases stemming from the Arab nation's recent political turmoil.

King Hussein's Arab Legion continued a roundup of Communists, left wing leaders and extreme Nationalists in an attempt to wipe out the Red influence contributing to Jordan's ferment. The country remained outwardly calm, with the streets of major cities virtually deserted, in the third day of martial law proclaimed by the young monarch.

Hundreds Arrested
(This dispatch, passed through censorship, did not specify whether these extremist elements were to be brought before the military courts. It was reported in other Arab capitals that several hundred persons were arrested in the roundup of leftists. One report said former Premier Suleiman Nabulsi, ousted by the king two weeks ago, was under house arrest in Amman.)

The new cabinet met for two hours under Premier Ibrahim Hashem. Government officials who had been fired during the Nabulsi administration were nearly all given back their jobs.

Streets Deserted
The streets of Amman, Old Jerusalem, Nablus, Ramallah and Irbid—the chief Jordanian cities—all were virtually deserted under the almost total curfew. Troops, and police patrolled the five cities, forcing everyone except a few officials to stay indoors through most of the day.

King Hussein's hand was strengthened by pledges of loyalty to him and his new government from sheiks and mayors in the older part of his desert realm.

The 21-year-old king also received some public expressions of support from the small but crowded Palestinian part of Jordan acquired during the 1948-49 Arab-Israeli war.

It was among the Palestinians that the Communists, infiltrating the ranks of Arab Nationalist movements, exerted most of their influence.

Has Temporary Victory
Hussein's moves, beginning with the martial law and the abolition of all political parties Thursday, brought him at least temporary victory in the second round of his struggle for his throne.

Big Projects Are Boon to Business

New York, April 27 (AP)—First signs of a spring-time boom in heavy construction brightened the nation's business scene this week.

Delayed in many parts of the country by rain and cold, the biggest road building program in history was finally getting underway.

There were other massive projects, ranging from hospitals, churches, schools and office buildings to oil pipelines, waterworks and sewers.

Offsets Lag
Stepped-up spending on heavy construction was counted upon to offset the continuing lag in demand for houses, textiles, appliances and cars.

The extent of this spending was graphically shown in a report by F. W. Dodge Corp. on contracts for future construction awarded during March. The total—$3,077,997,000—was the highest ever recorded in that month, and 11 per cent greater than the total for March last year. Biggest single increase—69 per cent—was in the heavy engineering category—a classification which includes highway projects. The March total for this group: $878,268,000.

Steelmakers Optimistic
Still waiting for signs of a spring upturn this week were producers of steel, non-ferrous metals, lumber, paperboard and oil.

Port Ewen School Rites On Sunday

The program for the dedication of the new Port Ewen School Sunday at 2 p. m., was announced today by Robert Graves, principal.

Ralph Johnson, former district superintendent will be one of the principal speakers.

Following the opening ceremonies including the Invocation by the Rev. James Kelley, pastor of the Church of the Presentation and the singing of "America, the Beautiful" by the Port Ewen School Chorus, Floyd Ellsworth, school trustee will offer the welcome.

The presentation of the keys will be made by William Campbell of Campbell Building Co., Inc. Oakley Maynard, chairman of the board of trustees will accept the building for Common School District 1, Town of Esopus.

New Roads Will Benefit Farmers

Schenectady, N. Y., April 27 (AP)—Farmers are expected to be among the first to benefit from the new federal interstate highway program, a government official says.

Bertram D. Tallamy, federal highway administrator, said on a radio broadcast (WGY) last night that a farmer would be able to bring his produce to the markets faster and cheaper. This would mean that the produce would be in better condition for sales, he said.

Tallamy, former chairman of the New York State Thruway Authority, discounted fears of some communities that their business would be hurt by by-passes.

The old belief that a by-pass around a town will make a ghost town of it has been repudiated, he said. "We know of dozens of places where businessmen are actually fighting hard to have by-passes around their town."

Suez Users Study Plan

Egyptian Cooperation Called Lacking
United Nations, N. Y., April 27 (AP)—The UN Security Council today took time out from its Suez Canal debate to let user countries consult on Egypt's new plan for running the waterway.

An all-day council discussion yesterday showed two members satisfied with the Egyptian declaration, three willing to give it a try and six anxious to replace it with an international agreement.

Six Against Move
For it were Iraq and the Soviet Union. For giving it a try were Nationalist China, the Philippines and the United States.

Blast Demolishes Apartment; One Woman Is Injured

New York, April 26 (AP)—A gas explosion on the upper East side early today demolished one apartment and damaged 14 others. One woman was hurt.

The blast occurred in the three-room apartment of Phoebe Hyde, 39-year-old interior decorator, of 531 E. 72nd.

Miss Hyde was hurled to the floor of her kitchen as her apartment crumpled about her. She suffered second and third degree burns of the body.

Windows Blown Out
So powerful was the explosion that pieces of Miss Hyde's furniture were found across the street. All eight windows in the second-floor apartment were blown out.

Windows in eight other apartments in the five-story brick building also were destroyed. A partition between the kitchen of Miss Hyde's apartment and an adjoining apartment was ripped apart.

Six apartments in an adjoining building also were damaged. Miss Hyde was taken to Roosevelt Hospital, where doctors listed her condition as satisfactory.

She had told police that the explosion came as she struck a match to light a cigarette. Police were not immediately able to determine what had caused the accumulation of gas.

Knowland, Javits Agree On $3 Billion Budget Cut

Washington, April 27 (AP)—Two GOP senators with conflicting views on "modern Republicanism" are in agreement that President Eisenhower's spending budget can be cut about three billion dollars.

Sen. Knowland of California, the Senate's GOP leader, told a Miami, Fla., audience last night if Congress can trim that amount from Eisenhower's $71,800,000,000 spending program it can build up a five billion dollar surplus from which to cut taxes and pay on the national debt.

Eisenhower's budget for the fiscal year starting July contemplates a surplus of $1,800,000,000. Coupling this with the three billion dollar cut proposed by Knowland would raise the expected surplus to about five billion.

Sen. Javits (R-N. Y.), speaking on a television broadcast recorded for New York stations, said he thinks the President's budget "can come down two or three billion."

Eisenhower has said there can be no substantial cuts in spending. He has rejected the idea of a two billion dollar reduction.

U.S. Probes Lanza Tax

New York, April 27 (AP)—The federal government is investigating income tax returns and personal financial records of Joseph (Socks) Lanza, center of a parole controversy, the World-Telegram & Sun said today.

The newspaper said U. S. Atty. Paul W. Williams is conducting the inquiry and that it was prompted by reports that Lanza, while on parole, lived on a scale beyond his possible salary while working as a hardware store clerk.

The controversy over Lanza, former Fulton fish market racketeer, stems from his being released after being picked up for a parole violation. He since has been picked up again and sent back to prison.

The state administration and state legislature are conducting inquiries to determine whether any political fix was involved in his original release after being charged with parole violations.

In a conversation in his cell, secretly tape-recorded, Lanza reportedly sought help from "the little guy" and "the man in the glasses."

Newspapers today quoted Gov. Averell Harriman as having told a group of editors and publishers in Albany yesterday that the "little guy" may have been Assemblyman Louis De Salvo, a Democrat, of Manhattan's second assembly district and that the "man in the glasses" may have been Lee E. Mailier, a Republican, parole board chairman.

Lanza's home is in De Salvo's district. De Salvo has testified in the investigations that he talked to Mailier about the Lanza case but only because he believed his constituent should get "a fair shake."

Sleightsburgh Girl Hurt In Ulster; Driver Fined

A 16-year-old Sleightsburgh girl, Mary Ann Topp, was injured about 10:15 o'clock Friday night when a car in which she was a passenger overturned on Boice's Lane in the town of Ulster.

The driver of the car, Burton Gulnick, 30, of 33 Furnace street, was arrested on a charge of operating the car at an endangering speed and in a plea of guilty was fined $10 by Justice Millard Davis of the town of Ulster.

Four other passengers in the car were uninjured. They are Diane Topp, 17; Rose Piccoli, 14; William Van Vliet, 18, all of Sleightsburgh and Carrie Curtis, 17, of 161 Fairview avenue, Kingston.

Mary Ann Topp suffered facial injuries and was taken to Kingston Hospital by Shultz ambulance. Her condition today was reported as "good."

Troopers W. L. Shurter and R. J. Flynn of the Kingston station investigated and reported the Gulnick car, a 1950 Dodge, was traveling south on Boice's Lane when on a sweeping curve the car failed to negotiate the turn, went off the west side of the road and overturned in a culvert. The car, badly damaged was towed from the scene.

"It is simple," he says. "I give more than half of the profits to religious work because that is the covenant I made with God in 1940. He lived up to His bargain twenty-fold, and I will live up to mine."

Reclaiming Silver

Tam's business is reclaiming silver from photographic solutions. He began his unique enterprise after reading that emulsion used on film contains silver and that over 10 tons of the metal are washed away each week, over the nation, in photographer's fixing baths.

At first try in 1936, the business failed. It happened in Columbus, Ohio, turning towards home, defeated, driving along in his car, Tam was praying to the Lord about disappointment. Suddenly the Spirit of God spoke to his heart. "It doesn't need to go broke. Turn the business over to me and I will make it succeed." This happened three years after an Ohio farmwoman had converted him to Christianity. He tried again, determined to work in partnership with God.

Today, Tam's collectors are installed in some 8,000 photographic establishments across the country in every state of the union.

Noted Evangelist Will Preach At West Shokan

MERLE FULLER

Evangelist Merle Fuller, founder and director of the Highland Lake Bible Conference in Sullivan county will speak at the Olive-Shokan Baptist Church, West Shokan, Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. Fuller is well-known in this area, having conducted series of meetings at Phoenicia Baptist Church last fall and at Lake Katrine Grange Hall in January.

10 Campaigns a Year
For the past 20 years he has averaged over 10 campaigns a year, and his ministry is endorsed by more than 300 pastors representing all the major evangelical denominations of Christianity.

His "victorious life" emphasis is especially welcome and effective, and his messages are Bible-centered and Christ-honoring. This one night meeting is an evidence of Mr. Fuller's desire to assist the small churches which feel they could not adequately support a longer series of services.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Friday at 7 p. m. the parish Methodist youth fellowship will meet at Wittenberg Youth Center. A sound motion picture in color is to be shown. Adults as well as youth are invited to the showing. The picture, "Thy Word Giveth Light," dramatically portrays the events in the life of a young man who as a soldier is blinded by an explosion in Italy. The film was produced for the American Bible Society, a missionary organization which has been supplying Scriptures to the blind since 1835. A special offering will be taken for their work.

The annual meeting of the Woodstock WSCS will be held in the church hall with a luncheon Thursday, May 3. Lunch will be served at 12 noon. Officers will be elected and annual reports will be heard.

Your Life And Mine

By CLYDE HERBERT SNELL
IF WISHES WERE FISHES

Probably just about every person who reads these lines has, at some time or other, heard this little jingle:

If wishes were fishes
We'd have a mess fried.
If wishes were horses
All beggars would ride.

Wishing is a project that is indulged in by young and old alike. It seems to be about as natural for folks to wish as it is for them to walk or talk. We start early—probably before we have learned to express our thoughts in words—and we never get done. Children wish they had the key to the candy store, or that they had oodles of money with which to buy all the frosted cookies and milk-shakes and ice-cream their young palates long for. Adults wish they had Cadillac, or that they had some other person's job, or that their lot in life could be different. Many times our childhood wishes reverse themselves in later years—children wish they were grown-up and oldsters often wish they were children again—but wishing as a project of the human mind seems to be about as indigenous to our make-up as opening our mouths to take in food.

This would be a strange world if wishes controlled realities. We'd all eat like gluttons—and wish away the extra pounds which all of that excessive indulgence put on. Ice cream would not be fattening and candy would be slenderizing and pie-a-la-mode would add nothing to our avoirdupois. Disciplined living would mean nothing. We would indulge ourselves all we felt like doing; and then wish the unwanted results away. We'd live on the fat of the land—and not get fat. There would be no inconsistency between gorging ourselves with food and the slim-Sally waistline.

In such a world the long, slow, pains-taking road to education would be eliminated. All knowledge, wisdom and skill would be ours at the magic touch of a wish. Midnight oil would be

What Does God's Law Say— "BETWEEN THE LINES?"

Few Christians will deny that the Ten Commandments are God's design for human conduct. Some so-called Christians think they are out-moded.

But how many know what they really mean?

"Thou shalt not steal," for example, obviously forbids robbery, burglary and embezzlement. What many evidently do not realize is that this Commandment also forbids evasion of just debts, bribery to gain political and business advantages, lending money at usurious rates, and other sharp practices which are often dishonestly excused as "smart business."

The Commandments speak only in broad, general terms. Their full meaning can be understood only in the light of the teaching of the New Testament. "I am the Lord, thy God; thou shalt not have strange gods before me," is taken by some to mean only that they must believe in a Supreme Being. Actually, it obliges us to prayer, gratitude, hope and worship, even though these words are not mentioned.

Most Christians agree that The Lord's Day must be kept holy. Yet there is a wide difference of opinion as to how this should be done . . . indeed, there is even some disagreement as to when the Lord's Day should be observed.

When God said "Thou shalt not kill," He was not warning mankind merely against murder due to greed, lust or vengeance. He was telling us plainly that He, Who alone had the power to create human life, was reserving for Himself the right to take it away. And He made no exceptions for deliberate abortion and the so-called "mercy killings" which some Christians seek to justify today.

A wide variance of opinion also prevails as to the meaning of the Commandment: "Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor." Some apparently think this is a prohibition only against perjury in a courtroom. Actually, it is a warning against lies of all descriptions and all acts of commission and omission which injure the good name and reputation of another.

You hear people say, with smug assurance: "I keep the Commandments—that's enough." And it would indeed be enough if

A SILLY SITUATION

The troubles of Delaware's Senator Williams in trying to turn back $1,508.26 he saved from his stationery allowance seem to demonstrate how thoroughly cumbersome government can get.

Treasury Secretary Humphrey's insistence that the government would indeed be glad to get the money doesn't obscure the fact that as the law reads there is really no sensible way to return it.

The law evidently makes it mandatory for the senator to receive the money whether he has need of it or not. Since this is an expense allowance, to make acceptance mandatory seems absurd.

By their nature expense accounts are generally flexible, though there is sense in fixing a maximum limit. What puzzles the onlooker is why a man must be compelled to take the maximum.

Tax experts say Williams can get the money back to the Treasury in one of two ways. First, he can write a check to the government for the full amount of his saving, and list it on his income tax return as a charitable contribution.

Second, he could write the check as a regular gift, deducting in advance enough to pay any necessary gift tax on the sum. If none is due, he would still perhaps hold out enough to pay the normal income tax on the amount, for the allowance is taxable as income to the senator.

Obviously, both of these schemes are foolish makeshifts which do not disguise the fact that Williams must take the money in the first place.

In any sensible world, he ought to be allowed to refuse the money in advance if he finds he doesn't need it. Or, if he's already received it but then discovers it's unneeded, he should be able to write a check returning the money as if he'd never had it at all.

A government that professes to be eager to save money certainly can find better ways than we now seem to have to encourage those who want to do their share in saving. The Williams episode makes the government look more than a little childish.

HAZARDOUS VOYAGES

This is the time of year for that onerous but necessary task of parenthood, admonition about the dangers that lurk in a pond or lake or stream. This reminder of the basic rules of water safety will not prevent all water accidents. But the yearly toll could be reduced if parents would do the job conscientiously.

Boys are attracted to any body of water, however small, as iron filings are attracted to a magnet. The mild days of spring produce not only crocuses and tulips, but homemade rafts in unstable variety. Boys seem to enjoy these assemblages of planks and inner tubes and oil drums more than the trimmest boat.

In a Minnesota town, a schoolboy drowned the other day when a raft made of two automobile hoods welded together capsized. Similar strange craft will inevitably appear on ponds and lakes all over the country. Parents may not feel that they should forbid their use, but at least they can warn against the hazards and inspect a raft or boat to make reasonably sure that it is seaworthy before the boys embark.

The most aggravating weather in the world is the kind that brings enough sun to do the outside chores but not enough to make it possible to play golf.

MORE SELF-HELP

Dr. William E. Stevenson, president of Oberlin College, says students will have to contribute more "do-it-yourself" help in solving their future educational problems. He sees the growing shortage of educators in colleges and universities as evidence of this developing self-help necessity.

Dr. Stevenson believes educators must arouse in students a keener sense of responsibility for their education. He also foresees greater use of graduate students and other non-professional assistants.

American youth doubtless will respond

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY
SCOTT McLEOD

I met a young fellow who does not like Scott McLeod. The reason: Scott McLeod, said the young fellow, is a friend of Joe McCarthy.

"Is that not guilt by association to which you and your professors object?" I asked.

"True, but McLeod is responsible for having many fine men driven out of the State Department."

"Who are these fine men?" I asked.

Silence.

One does not remember names, dates, places.

It is only necessary to remember sentences, slogans, stereotypes. This is regarded as education.

If the student remembers the professors' phrases, he gets a good mark. In time, he believes them.

I pursued the argument: "Do you know what Scott McLeod's job has been in the State Department?"

The answer was ambiguous.

"Well," I said, "his formal title has been Administrator, Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs. This has to do with screening personnel to avoid employment of blabbermouths, homosexuals and subversives. Blabbermouths are bad because they give a drink or two and they talk their heads off. Often they quote their superiors. Blabbermouths are beloved by newspapermen because while they may be wrong in detail they provide tips that can be followed up. There are more male than female blabbermouths. I know a blabbermouth who always says more than he ought to and then worries for weeks whether he has not wrecked his family. A fellow in the code room of an embassy must not be a blabbermouth. If he prefers being the wise guy in a bar or at a cocktail party, he ought to apply for some other job than in the State Department. He could do less harm at the hardware counter of a department store."

"The homosexual, male or female, is always subject to blackmail. So is the married man who chases after other men's wives. This may be some kind of indoor sport but it is no good for the State Department. Such people have to be screened out. The subversive is obviously out of order. Maybe glamorous persons are more susceptible to blackmail than the dull steady type, but the State Department cannot afford to have people about who are susceptible to blackmail."

"Somebody has to do the screening. If it is not one man, it will be another, and the job changes with the times. For instance, when this country was at war with Germany, those who were pro-German were dangerous for the State Department; when we were at war with Japan, anyone who was pro-Japanese became a menace. Now we are in a state of a cold war with Soviet Russia and therefore the pro-Russian and the pro-Communist are a menace. Somebody has to do the job of checking personnel in this sensitive agency and, I suppose, whoever does it will make a lot of personal enemies."

So again, I asked the young man where he heard that Scott McLeod, our new Ambassador to Ireland, is such a bad man. Well, it all came out in college. The word had gone forth to smear a public official because he did his duty, whatever his duty happened to be.

Bad thinking is involved in all this because whereas none of us are perfect and the probability is that if one searched hard enough, he would find much that is unsatisfactory in each one of us, here was a conclusion, held with vehemence and blushing anger but without any effort to get at a single fact to uphold a point of view.

It is the avoidance of facts to which I object; the repetition of sentences and phrases, of charges and conclusions spoken in classrooms and repeated everywhere. That certainly is not an intellectual approach to anything. While many of these young men refer to themselves as intellectuals, they reject the work that an intellectual must do to catalogue facts, to screen out unrelated matter, to avoid subjective reactions and not to reach a conclusion based on nothing but hearsay. Since the 1930's American intellectuals have been willing to be led by stereotypes, by phrases which may apply to some things but which are not generalizations applicable to all human problems. The assumption that because one wants to work in the Foreign Service, he ought to be allowed to work in it without adequate screening, is an untenable position in these times.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

DOMICILIARY CARE IN HOSPITALS

It may come as a surprise to many to learn that as a result of 18 months of study, a committee in New York City, headed by Dr. Howard A. Rusk, has reported to the mayor that one of every five patients in the city's municipal general hospitals and in those for patients with chronic disease is there not because he needs hospital services but simply because he has no other place to go. No doubt this situation prevails in practically all our large cities and perhaps even in a few towns and villages. It is also a condition that is prevalent in many of our veterans' hospitals.

According to this announcement, New York City is already taking steps to overcome this situation by creating for such patients institutions to be known as "homesteads."

These will be buildings adjacent to the municipal hospitals which will serve these people and from which they can be rapidly transferred to the hospitals should they need any medical care. According to Mr. David M. Heyman, president of the New York Foundation which finances the study, the first homestead will be a pilot experiment and is being developed at the Coldwater Memorial Hospital on Welfare Island.

The members of the committee urge the use of the homesteads, particularly because they will offer inhabitants opportunities for much more normal living than is possible in hospitals. Obviously, when they are resident in hospitals, they are the source of demands on the professional staff and on auxiliary workers such as nurses, dietitians, maids and other persons who might be devoting their time to greater advantage to patients who are acutely sick.

In a supplementary statement, Dr. Rusk points out that 19.2 per cent, or between 1,740 and 2,220 of the 10,000 surveyed were patients in the category mentioned. Obstetric patients, infants, tuberculosis patients and those with psychiatric diagnoses were not included in the study. Most of these patients had conditions of the nerves, heart and blood vessels and arthritis. Most of them did not have homes or relatives to whom they could go. The great majority were elderly people who had chronic diseases of long duration.

The committee also mentioned the desirability of a rehabilitation program since, with proper care, many of the persons concerned might become capable of caring for themselves and might even be able to obtain gainful occupations. I am sure every community can see the desirability of keeping hospital beds free for those who are acutely ill and need the services of a hospital. On the other hand, our old folk must be looked after to the best of our ability. This idea of a "homestead" close by the general hospital seems like a step in the right direction.

"You Can Go Home—You've Convinced Me"

Washington News

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington—(NEA)—If District of Columbia residents could vote and "politik" actively there's one cab driver in town who would organize a Pat Nixon-for-President club.

This cabbie is also a painter by trade and was recently called in to do some decorating on the new vice presidential house.

"Mrs. Nixon started to watch what I was doing and I figured this was going to be trouble," he says. "There's nothing worse than a woman who tries to tell you how to do your job."

"But the wife of the vice president turned out to be different," he added. "She didn't try to boss me. She was pleasant. And when I finished she told me that I had done a real good job. She's really wonderful."

AMONG the hundreds of thousands of tourists that come to this town each year to gaze upon the Japanese cherry blossoms there is one vociferous dissenter.

Sen. Norris Cotton (R-N. H.) admits that the blossoms are a "never-to-be-forgotten sight" but he said there was a touch of "artificiality" about the whole show.

True to his native state he said he'd "swap the whole Cherry Blossom Festival for one maple 'sugaring-off' party on the old farm in Warren, N. H."

IN THIS TOWN people are always giving awards to somebody for something—usually to get a big name to attend their special function.

But the Women's 'National Press Club was proud to honor Mrs. Charles E. Wilson with the title of "The Spunkiest Woman of the Year." Mrs. Wilson has made something of a hit here by defending her cabinet husband against the "unfair attacks" of the press and the administration.

Highlight of the buffet dinner the women reporters had in her honor was a community sing, Mrs. Wilson's favorite party pastime.

A 15-YEAR-OLD schoolboy fired the first boom for Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) for president—and Kennedy didn't duck.

Ronald G. Bressler of Bayonne, N. J., came to town the other day to get the blessings of his idol for a "Keep Kalm With Kennedy Club." During the last election, Ronald edited and published a tabloid called "The Campaigner" which all the bigwig Democrats hailed.

The young editor is not new in the picking winners field. When he was 10 years old he predicted the election of President Eisenhower before he even won the nomination.

EVERYBODY IN TOWN tries for prestige reasons to get Milton Eisenhower, the President's brother, as a sponsor for dances and meetings. But the sedate, scholarly educator usually politely declines.

Somehow the United Cerebral Palsy Committee got him behind its benefit Inter-American Ball, one of Washington's biggest blasts.

Calyptso singer Harry Belafonte is listed as the star attraction, but no one will be surprised if Milton steals the show.

NEWLY ARRIVED Ambassador Mariano Puga from Chile caused heart flurries among the town's eligible females when he arrived alone and looking like a bachelor. But when he revealed he was returning to Chile right away to pick up his wife and some of his seven children, the gals gave up.

Bachelors are hard to come by in this town.

SEN. WAYNE MORSE of Oregon has at last found the formula for delivering a speech which will bother no one and to which as few people as possible will have to listen.

As Morse rose and addressed the chair, Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, acting majority floor leader, suggested a quorum call since only a few senators were on the floor.

"I should like to complete my speech without a quorum call," said Morse.

"I thought the senator would like to have a quorum present, in the light of the speech he is about to make," said Mansfield.

"The senator is very kind," said Morse, "but . . . I do not want to disturb anyone at lunch. It is now a quarter after one."

Clinics Essential

In Mental Health,

Forum Stresses

Mental health clinics are a necessity today it was pointed out at the third annual forum on the subject Thursday night in the Jewish Community Center, Wall Street. Approximately 100 people attended.

Speakers from Poughkeepsie stressed the advantages derived from the Dutchess County All Purpose Mental Health Clinic formed in 1954 as an outgrowth of the Dutchess County Society for Mental Health, which started in 1950.

Dr. Schwartz Chairman

Dr. Herbert Schwartz, medical director of the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital, was chairman of the discussion panel. He was introduced by David Kline, president of the Jewish Community Center.

Attorney Richard Russell, Poughkeepsie, said clinics were positive ways for helping promote mental health in "these days of automation when civilization has not devoted the time to development of the person and personality."

115,000 in Hospitals

He said the state has a big mental problem. There are approximately 115,000 hospitalized in institutions, the speaker emphasized.

Royce McWhater, chief psychiatric social worker in the Dutchess clinic, said it served the mental health needs of all age groups and all residents of the county. Church, school and social agencies help to determine those who need guidance.

The clinic serves the lower and middle income groups on a sliding-scale fee for services, based on income.

Each case is handled by a psychiatrist, psychologist and social workers.

Stresses Early Treatment

Dr. Joseph Reidy, psychiatrist, stressed the importance of early treatment in the movement to prevent mental illness, and said public education is most desirable in the effort to promote the project.

A community clinic, he advised must be part of an official network of services including a public health nurse, pediatrician, school curriculum, family physician and treatment centers, each working with the other to keep the mental health program in operation at each needed level.

It has been proven, he said, that the earlier treatment is begun, the shorter and less expensive it will be.

Many questions were answered on various phases of the subject in view of the fact that Ulster county is in the process of organizing a mental health program to be supervised by the Mental Health Board organized by the board of supervisors.

An informal reception was held and refreshments served by Mrs. Herbert Gertner, chairman of the Jewish Community Center Adult program committee.

Bird Speeds

Speeds of migrating birds vary greatly, but a study of all species traveling up the Mississippi river valley indicates an average speed of about 23 miles a day.

Week's Business & Finance Reported by AP

Trading Volume Soars

New York, April 26 (AP)—The stock market rapped on the door of the 1957 highs this week.

Whether the door will swing open is still a question.

In a hurly-burly week of wide moves by selected issues, trading volume soared to its highest pitch in more than a year.

In fact, it was the best volume since the week ended April 7, 1956, the week when the Associated Press average of 60 stocks climbed to its all-time bull market high of $191.50 on April 6.

This week the AP average moved up $1.80 to $180.60 for its ninth straight weekly advance. On Thursday the average was at $181.00, just $1.00 below the 1957 high of $182.00 reached on Jan. 4.

Long, Slow Advance

It's been a long, slow road upward since the average hits its 1957 low of $168.00 on Feb. 12. But as the fourth month of this year neared its end, the predictions of leading Wall Street analysts have been borne out—so far. Most of them looked for neither a soaring bull market nor a declining bear market, but a trading range.

Thus far, there have been some fairly wide swings, but the market is now about where it was when the year got under way.

The week's volume of 13,412,730 shares, averaging 2,682,546 shares a day was last exceeded by the 2,838,724 daily average of the week ended April 7, 1956. The market was definitely out of its long period of doldrums. Speculative interest ran high; and the jingle of cash registers as commissions were made had a merry sound to brokers.

Most Active Issues

The five most active issues on the American Stock Exchange this week were:

Pressed Metals of America, up 1/16 at 11 1/16 on 137,100 shares; Panoastal Petroleum, up 1/4 at 11 1/4; Reller-Foster, up 1/4 at 11 1/4; Fargo Oils, up 1/16 at 5 1/16; and Nickel Rim, up 1/4 at 4 1/4.

The five most active issues on the New York Stock Exchange this week were:

Bethlehem Steel, up 1/4 at 45 1/4 on 478,000 shares; Chrysler, up 3/4 at 79 1/4; Lukens Steel, up 1/4 at 89 1/4; Texas Gulf Producing, up 1/4 at 45 1/4; and Allegheny Corp., up 1/4 at 7 1/4.

Bond Review

New York, April 27 (AP)—Corporate bonds slipped lower on expanded volume this week while U. S. government bonds were irregularly lower on much smaller volume.

In the corporate list, rails and investment quality issues were down sharply. The rails plumbed a new low for the year as measured by the Associated Press index of 60 representative bonds. Utilities gave ground also but a rally Friday prevented their losses from approaching those of the first two. Industrials worked higher, however, and foreign dollar lines edged up a fraction.

Trading was active, mounting to $23,420,000 par value on the big board for the week, compared with $15,621,000 for the previous four-day week and $21,463,000 for the corresponding week in 1956.

The pattern of government bond prices was erratic.

Offerings for Future

The visible supply of state and municipal offerings scheduled for public bidding over the next 30 days amounts to $331,375,166 compared with $422,687,059 a week ago, according to the Daily Bond Buyer. New issues on tap this coming week total $159,502,700 bonds and $22,234,000 short-term notes, compared with revised totals of $185,849,359 bonds and $28,829,000 notes for this week. The weekly average of long-term offerings now is $139,155,900.

Bidding for 60 million dollars of Ohio veterans bonds on Wednesday highlights the coming week's calendar. On Tuesday, Cleveland will put 17 1/2 million dollars of capital improvement bonds on the block. The same day, Long Beach, Calif., is to auction $10,200,000 of various purpose obligations. On Monday, Little Rock, Ark., will open bids on $9,585,000 of water revenue bonds.

The corporate calendar will be relatively light this coming week. On Tuesday, Blyth & Co. will offer 300,000 common shares of Portland General Electric Co. the next day, First Boston Corp. is to sell publicly 250,000 common shares of KLM Royal Dutch Airlines, and Morgan Stanley & Co. will offer 45 million dollars of Providence of British Columbia debentures.

Livestock Report

Chicago, April 27 (AP)—Hogs declined 25 to 50 cents this week under selling pressure which was caused by liberal receipts in mid-week.

A few No. 1 lightweight butchers hit a top of $19.35 Monday, the highest in three months, and this caused an advance in receipts. Pork loins dropped as much as $5.00 per hundred pounds during the week.

Steers and heifers fell about 50 cents to $1.00 for the week, due partly to increased receipts and a sluggish market for dressed beef. There was some expansion of cattle shipments, which had been expected after the Easter period. High prime steers topped at $28.00 during the week.

Slaughter lambs were weak to 50 cents lower than a week ago. Slaughter ewes dropped 50 cents to $1.00. Dressed lambs were fully $2.00 lower in Chicago, and down $1.00 to $2.00 in New York.

Wheat From Fleet

Chicago, April 27 (AP)—The so-called mothball fleet—something that nearly everybody had forgotten about—came out of the mothballs to scare wheat traders late this week.

The government sales from the mothball fleet caused selling in wheat futures and was a depressing influence in a market that might otherwise have been higher because of the Middle East news. Most other grains also were lower, except for oats and nearby soybean contracts.

New style wheat closed the week 1 1/2 to 3 cents lower than a week ago, new style wheat 2 1/2 to 3 cents lower, unchanged to 2 1/2 lower, oats 1/4 up to 1/2 down, rye 3 to 4 1/2 lower, soybeans 1 cent higher to 1/2 lower, and land 42 to 62 cents a hundred pounds down.

The government long ago stored wheat in World War 2 Liberty ships, mostly in the Hudson river and the St. James river. The total stores is more than 40 million bushels. Late this week the government sold some of it at a price about 2 1/2 cents below the market price. This was a selling influence particularly in the May wheat contract.

What's Happening Out at Whittier?

..... We've been catching our breath!!

Miles and miles of pipeline plus a few hundred thousand dollars to install central water and sewerage facilities, added up to quite a year past. The first hundred or more people now living at Whittier are a symbol, in a way, of what motivated the plan to bring these facilities out to this farmland countryside. More families are scheduled to move in every week.

Now we're only looking ahead.

Veterans who have not used their GI loan should certainly plan on doing so soon, at Whittier or elsewhere, for the source of GI mortgage funds from banks the country over is an extremely limited area. We have about ten Montclair style homes at $14,250.00 which a GI can buy with $290.00 cash, on a 30 year — 4½% mortgage basis — only because of a mortgage commitment entered into more than six months ago. The possibility of ever renewing such a commitment is thin indeed. The 2% cash down, 30 year GI mortgage is generally conceded to be close to extinction from a banking viewpoint.

The Montclair, incidentally, contains over 1,500 square feet of living area:—three bedrooms, a very large family-playroom (or fourth bedroom), two complete pastel colored ceramic tile baths, a 1957 Hotpoint kitchen — 100% complete, full overhead door garage; all in all, an extremely vital home for the vital growing family. Veterans, in particular, are urged to snap up those few available for immediate delivery.

a low-slung ranch house sprawler with three family bedrooms, a complete ceramic tiled bath and extensions for a guest powder room later on, — a 1957 Hotpoint kitchen completely equipped, a tastefully latticed carport and storage room.

Veterans still have a limited opportunity to get in on a 2% cash down, 4½% 30 year mortgage in the initial section of Salisbury Wonderhomes.

The 'Aben'... Popular Seven Room Split Level Design

Rooms ..... Seven
Bedrooms ..... Three
Closets ..... Seven
Cubage ..... 39,564 ft.
Dimensions ..... 62' 10" x 28' 4"

Featured today by the Home of the Week Plan Service is the "Aben" a seven room house of split level design that provides the maximum of living area at a minimum of square foot construction costs.

The "Aben" was issued before by Home of the Week for a different floor plan.

Many people wrote in and asked for a revision of the floor plan to include an L-shaped living-dining area. Thus, the floor plan was revised to meet these demands.

As most split level houses, the "Aben" would be at its best on a sloping lot or one that has been judiciously graded to provide the necessary elevations for this house.

Although a true split level structure, its design is one that combines some of the colonial and ranch style homes.

The house is also a graceful looking structure with no awkward lines or boxy corners. It is truly a streamlined home that would blend with the most modern suburban neighborhood.

A Large House

The "Aben" is a large house. It measures 62 feet, 10 inches by 28 feet, four inches. The versatility of the house is illustrated by the areas it contains: Laundry and game room, three bedrooms, living room, dining room, kitchen, breakfast area, and a two-car garage. A full basement, measuring 26 feet by 29 feet is located under the main living area of the "Aben."

The 28 by 14-foot, four-inch recreation or game room is entered from grade level both in the back and the front. For convenience, there is also a door to this area from the 20 by 28-foot two-car garage.

Off the game room there is a lavatory. An additional convenience is provided in the recreation room through the installation of a large closet at the back of the room.

As the recreation room is large, a laundry area could be included in the plans without sacrificing any of the space in the main portion of the room.

Living Level

The main level, over the basement and at a higher elevation than the garage and recreation game room, contains the living room, kitchen, dining room and breakfast area.

The three bedrooms and the main bathroom are on the uppermost level above the garage and the recreation-game room.

The living room is 20 feet long fast bar could be built-in or a large breakfast set installed.

As the breakfast area is nine feet long by six feet wide, and completely out of the traffic pattern of the kitchen, considerable leeway is provided the owner in planning its contents. For the kitchen, there is an entrance to the rear yard.

The bedrooms, on the upper level, are entered from a straight center hall, as is the bathroom. The master bedroom, at the rear of the house is 17 feet long by 12 feet wide. This room contains a long and deep closet that will more than accommodate the clothes of the couple occupying this room.

The two remaining bedrooms are at the front of the house. Each of these measures 10 feet by 12 feet and each also is equipped with a double-sized closet.

The bathroom is large and a linen closet is located there.

The "Aben" is designed to meet specifications of the VA and FHA and is sold with a money back guarantee if for any reason the builder decides not to proceed with construction.

Blueprints Available

Complete plans and specifications for this house and all other "Home of the Week" designs are available at moderate cost. Address requests (mentioning name of home) to Home of the Week, Inc., Dept. KF, 87 Weybosset street, Providence, R. I.

Outdoor Market

In addition to supplying hot water within the home, household models of gas water heaters are taking up a new task—supplying it for outdoor use. With an outdoor tap, or a hose connection via a cellar window, the householder can speed that car washing or shutter cleaning job. When mixing valves or faucets are used, it's easy to take the chill off wading pools or hose-shower frolics.

Delicate Job

Use great care when removing the finish from veneer with sandpaper. If you sand too much you may cut right through the thin wood veneer. On jobs of this sort, a liquid or paste type of paint or varnish remover is safer than coarse grade sandpaper.

Small Closet Can House Heating Unit

One of the problems in building or modernizing a small basementless house is that there often doesn't seem to be any place to put the furnace without sacrificing expensive floor space that's badly needed for family living.

The problem can be solved with modern equipment, however, in three ways:

Use a specially designed, space-saving type of furnace so trim and compact it will fit in a small closet.

Install a horizontal furnace in a crawl space.

Some models of the first type measure as little as 14 inches wide and 28 inches deep. The closet need be little larger, for this is a "zero clearance" unit approved for installation with its side and back touching closet walls. In remodeling work, if a suitable closet doesn't exist, one can usually be made by boxing off a corner of a room.

The horizontal furnace in a crawl space of a shallow attic doesn't take up any living area at all. Instead of standing upright, it lies on its side.

The ducts that carry warm air to the rooms can fan out through the crawl space to terminate in outlets in the floor, walls, or baseboard, or through the attic to outlets in the ceiling.

Decorators Seeking Versatility in Floors

The movement away from the sameness of wall-to-wall carpeting, which began a few years ago, has continued as homemakers and decorators alike seek the greater versatility of style and color that the newer hard floorings possess.

Builders have aided this trend for durability, ease of maintenance and economy with such materials as rubber, asphalt, and vinyl plastic, tile and inlaid linoleum and even cork and leather in floors.

Newer designs and a variety of color and pattern effects have given the impetus to extending these tough but attractive man-made floorings from the kitchen into foyers, dining and living rooms. And, their sparkling shine when properly maintained with wax polishing is a mark of style.

Natural Finishes

There are several ways to obtain a so-called natural finish that reveals the grain of wood to some degree. One is to apply several thin coats of linseed oil and finish with wax. Another is to apply shellac or varnish before waxing. Shellac should be thinned with alcohol at least half and half or in accordance with directions on the can.

Right Way to Hang Pictures

Toplofty picture hanging is one of the commonest of all room faults. But it's one that's so easy to correct. Look around the room you're sitting in now. Would it improve if all the pictures were pulled down 2 to 8 inches?

Lower levels relate pictures to the furniture beneath them and tie them with the furniture into a single decorative grouping.

This unity of pictures and furniture in a grouping makes the room more restful, corrects that uneasy feeling a picture can cause when it seems to be flying upward to the ceiling.

When the picture comes down from its alone and lonely perch it has a look of belonging to the room that it hadn't before and is easier to look into and enjoy.

Your own experiment must decide when the picture's position is exactly right. As near a rule as there can be is that the center of interest in a picture—not its actual center—should be about 5 feet 5½ inches from the floor, but often the picture looks better when it's hung lower than that.

The first automobile seen in Detroit was driven through its street in 1896 by Charles D. King.

Kitchen Design Aims At Efficiency, Safety

An efficient kitchen is also a safe kitchen. The best examples have slip-proof flooring to safeguard against the most serious of kitchen mishaps—falls. Such accidents are usually caused by spillage of water, grease or food. Slightly abrasive tile floors grip the shoe. Other safety measures to look for: electric outlets above the countertops; refrigerator door opening away from work areas; provision for heavy objects to be set well back on shelves and not hung from hooks overhead.

Guest Room Can Double As TV Den

In planning a new home, is it feasible to include a guest room?

The answer depends on your conception of such a room. If it's to be used only a few times a year, a guest room is a super-luxury in these days of high building costs.

However, if you can plan the room primarily for family activities and only secondarily for company, a guest room may serve a useful role in any home. It may double as a play space for the children in bad weather, a hobby center and a good place for television entertaining, and yet be ready for company in a jiffy.

Use one wall for built-in storage. This space should accommodate large toys, luggage and sports equipment.

Build in as much furniture as possible. Save space by building a frame for a mattress and using the space beneath it to store bedding. Such a bed may be covered with a wrinkle-resisting material and be used for a sofa. If you prefer a standard bed, get a single size, without head or foot boards. It also may serve as the activities room sofa.

Plan a small snack bar where glasses, napkins and soft drinks may be stored. If it's on casters, it may be rolled into a corner when not in use. If the room must be kept small, use folding chairs for it.

Control Warping

A board warps when one side of it is exposed more freely than the other to moisture or moisture vapor. Whenever a board of any width over six inches is to be painted, it's a good idea to paint the back, too, if possible. This is usually easiest to do before the board is put in place.

Resurfacing Walls

Resurfacing of old walls and ceilings and the building of new walls in home modernization projects is greatly simplified by ready-mixed lightweight gypsum plaster. It is much lighter and easier to use than sanded plaster and rates higher fire-resistance. All you do is add water and use.

To 'Stretch' a Room

The fashion for using the same color on both walls and woodwork is a smart one—especially for small rooms. The rooms look larger because the contrasting lines that "cut up" a room are less noticeable. With so many of the fine washable paints that are now available, it's possible to use the same paint on both walls and woodwork.

Beware of Rust

It's a wise policy always to use aluminum nails in all places exposed to the weather. Galvanizing is not permanent insurance against rust. Stains bleeding through paint from oxidizing nailheads can give any house a case of rust measles.

Extra Precaution

When joining two boards that are to be exposed to the weather, coat the end grain with white lead to insure a watertight joint.

A LOOK INSIDE—This is a cellblock at the Napanoch Institution for Male Defective Delinquents, one of the buildings that will observe the state's open house program next week. Public inspection is invited.

6 State Buildings Will Hold Open House Next Week

Six state buildings in Ulster county will be open for public inspection next week, it was announced today.

The "open door" policy is in compliance with a request by Governor Averell Harriman.

Open for inspection in Ulster county will be New Paltz Teachers College, the Senate House and Museum, Napanoch Institution for Male Defective Delinquents, Wallkill Prison, State Department of Public Works Building here, and the 156th Field Artillery Battalion Armory, Manor avenue.

The Governor said he had insisted on an "open door" policy throughout all departments and agencies to permit a free flow of information.

"Now we are carrying this philosophy a step further by holding 'open house' during the week of April 29 to May 5," he said in urging all citizens to visit one or more of the agencies and buildings.

The Governor said he believed this would be the first time that a state had held such an "open house" for its citizens.

Keep Shellac

It is best to avoid buying more shellac than is immediately required since it doesn't store well for prolonged periods. Its shelf life, however, can be increased somewhat if it is kept in glass containers rather than tin cans.

Two Ways to Win by Ruffs

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

East won the opening club lead with the king and continued with the ace and four spot. South ruffed with the ten.

At this point there are two distinct ways to play and make the hand, yet in a recent team match both declarers managed to go down. Here are the correct plays:

Line 1—Lead the jack of diamonds. If West covers, the hand becomes a cinch. If West ducks, let East win the trick. His best defense is to return a trump.

Win this in dummy with the eight. Take the ace of diamonds, the king of spades and the ace of spades in that order. Then trump the third diamond in dummy, the last club in your own hand and the last diamond in dummy. This will give you eight tricks, and you will still have a high trump left in your own hand.

Line 2—Play the ace of spades and then the king of spades. Now trump the fourth club in your own hand and lead the jack of spades. East will trump this and return a trump. Win this in your own hand and enter dummy with the ace of diamonds. Now lead the fourth spade and trump it. This will give you seven tricks in and you will still have two high trumps in dummy.

Neither of these plays is hard to find if you approach the play from the problem of getting six trump tricks, two spades and one diamond. In order to get six trump tricks you must either get two ruffs in dummy or three in your own hand.

The first line gets two ruffs in dummy; the second three in your own hand. Both lines depend on the spades going around twice. If spades don't go twice it will be pretty hard to find any winning play at all.

Give 'Em Time

If doors and drawers get sort of sticky in this sort of weather, take it easy with the sandpaper or the plane. In humid, warm weather the wood tends to absorb a lot of moisture and that's the reason for the sticking. Come a few dry days and the wood will shrink back to normal size.

Rust-Proof Screws

If you keep an assortment of iron screws on hand and are bothered by rust, dip the screws in aluminum paint and spread them out on paper to dry, says the American Builder, trade journal.

Safer Than Wax

Don't use ordinary floor paste wax on stone or tile floors that are exposed to the weather because the wax will become slippery when wet. The proper finish for floors of this type is a special sealer that will keep the stone from absorbing dirt but won't become slippery when wet.

Plenty of Choice

Thirty different types of gas-fired rubbish and garbage incinerators are now on the market for installation in the basement, on a porch, in a utility room or possibly the laundry.

Without constant dredging the Suez Canal would become a dry ditch.

COUPLE CONSTANTLY ARGUING

A reader tells me: "I belong to a group of friends who get together every other week. We are all very congenial and have always had a great deal of fun. The past several times that we have met one of the couples did nothing but argue with each other the entire time and said some very unpleasant things to each other. Needless to say it has made the rest of us very uncomfortable. We have tried to ignore it but there is always an air of tension. Will you please tell us how we can bring this to their attention in the most tactful manner?"

The only thing you can do is to have someone who knows them especially well take them aside and tell them that they perhaps do not realize it but their constant arguing is making it very unpleasant for everyone.

Tipping Hairdresser
Dear Mrs. Post: Is it necessary that one always tip the hairdresser who does one's hair—even if she is dissatisfied with the way it is done? A friend and I had an argument about this the other day and I said that if one was dissatisfied with the service one received, it was not necessary to leave a tip. She disagreed and said that it was wrong not to give a tip to a hairdresser whether one was pleased or not. What is your opinion?

Answer: In my opinion you would really have to leave a tip the same as you would in a restaurant to the waiter. Of course the tip would be smaller if you were not pleased than it would be if you were pleased.

Must Bridemaid Give Separate Gift?

Dear Mrs. Post: I am to be a bridesmaid at my cousin's wedding. My parents are giving the bride-to-be a very nice wedding present. May my name be included with theirs or is it necessary—as a member of the bridal party—to give a separate gift?

Answer: Under the circumstances you describe your name may certainly be added to those of your parents.

What are the essential linens for a hope chest? Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. However, a list of linens and personal trousseau clothes are included in leaflet E-5, "The Bride's Trousseau." To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. ## Easter Wedding for Jacqueline Tierney; Couple Leave for Trip to Washington, D. C.

St. Joseph's Church formed the background for the wedding of Miss Jacqueline Ann Tierney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Tierney, to James Patrick Nolan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pearson on Easter Sunday, April 21 at 3 p. m.

The Rev. James V. Keating performed the ceremony. It was a double ring wedding.

Mrs. Gertrude Rafferty was at the organ and Robert Gallo sang several traditional selections.

The church was decorated with Easter lilies.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and she wore a gown of Italian lace and nylon tulle over slipper satin with a fitted lace bodice worn with a scooped neckline with nylon tulle shirred edging trimmed with iridescent sequins. Her long lace sleeves tapered to points over the wrists and the bouffant skirt featured a fan of rolled nylon tulle over net down the front panel and back ending in a Cathedral train. The bride's headpiece was a princess crown of sequins, seed pearls and rhinestones to which was gathered a three tier nylon tulle veil. She carried a white orchid and satin streamers on a lace covered prayer book.

Miss Jeannine Tierney, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and she wore a floor length gown, very bouffant skirt, of white dotted nylon tulle over a colored skirt of turquoise. She also wore matching mitts and carried a bouquet of yellow daffodils and lilies.

Serving as bridesmaids were the Misses Mary Fiore, Marilyn Goodman, Rase Marie Rundel and Kathy Nolan. Miss Nolan is the bridegroom's sister.

The bridesmaids' gowns were identical in styling to that of the honor attendant except in colors of pink, yellow, blue and lilac. They carried bouquets of yellow lilies and white pompons, purple lilies and white daisies.

Donald Pacelli was the best man. Ushers included Jack Serbason, James Harris, Michael Volpe and Joseph Kish.

Child ringbearer was Kevin Tierney, brother of the bride and the flower girl was Karylee Murphy, cousin of the bride.

A reception was held at the Tropical Inn for approximately 175 guests.

Miss Tierney is a graduate of Kingston High School and is employed by IBM in Kingston.

The bridegroom is also a graduate of Kingston High School and attended Cornell University. He is now in the service of the army.

For her wedding trip to Washington, D. C., the bride chose a champagne suit with mink trim and accessories to match.

The couple will make their home at 207 Downs street.

New York Orchestra To Play for League Ball on May 25

Lester Lanin, and his orchestra, a group that has played for such fashionable events as the Tiffany Ball in Newport, Gotham Ball, Autumn Ball at Tuxedo Park, has been engaged to play for the Junior League of Kingston's "Coral Ball" according to the Mmes. James L. Quinn, Peter D. Corsones, John J. Van Gonsie, co-chairmen.

The "Coral Ball" will be held Saturday, May 25 at the Governor Clinton Hotel at 9 p. m.

Lester Lanin and his musicians also recently played for a ball given in honor of Prince Rainier and his wife, Grace Kelly.

The ball has been planned to help celebrate the 35th anniversary celebration of the Kingston Junior League and a highlight of the event will be the masks worn.

Each person attending may wear a headpiece of any type to add to the festivities of the evening.

The Junior League of Kingston was founded in 1922 by a group of young women who realized the importance of taking an active and responsible part in the welfare and activities of their community.

During these years of growth and development the Junior League has contributed much to our community through volunteer services—giving financial backing to community projects—hospital work—participation in church groups—Children's Theatre program—cheer chain—Loan Closet in the Tumor Clinic building including a supply of hospital beds, crutches and wheel chairs, which are available to the public, free of charge. Many of our members serve on boards of other organizations.

The Junior League Exchange at 45 Crown street was organized in 1951. The increasing growth in business for the past six years proves its good will to customers as well as consignors.

Recently, the Junior League redecorated the library room of the Boys' Club of Kingston which included painting, new flooring, new furniture and a television set.

At the April meeting of the League, the group voted $3,000 to develop a children's room in the Kingston City Library.

Suburban towns showed population gains of up to 118 per cent.

Washington, April 27 (AP)—A newly appointed group to study nutrition in relation to the health

The Public Health Service yesterday selected seven research and nutrition experts to make the studies. The group includes Dr. Charlotte Young, Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., and Dr. John Adair of Cornell's many farms project, Sandoval, N. M.

JAYCEES ENDORSE NEW JUNIOR HIGH—The Kingston Junior Chamber of Commerce gave unanimous endorsement to the proposed new junior high school for the Dietz Stadium area after a study session at this week's meeting. ## Proposed Junior High Questions and Answers

This material has been prepared under authorization of the Board of Education of the City School District of the City of Kingston. Its purpose is to acquaint the voters of Kingston with pertinent information relative to the proposed junior high school and to answer any questions they may have concerning its need, cost, construction and location.

QUESTION: Several months ago a bill was introduced to the State Legislature to abolish junior high schools. Is there any possibility that junior high schools will be abolished or become obsolete and outmoded?

ANSWER: No. The junior high school idea is a growing one and is recognized throughout the nation by educationally informed people as a vital part of the educational organization of our nation's schools. Objections to the junior high school deal largely with costs.

QUESTION: Is a school system of organization which includes the junior high school more expensive to operate than other systems of organization?

ANSWER: No. It is relatively easy to see the costs of operating an educational program when that program is housed in one building. For this reason critics have been able to point to the expense of junior high schools. Surveys of costs of educational programs under various types of school system organization show that no one system has any cost advantage over the others.

QUESTION: What is meant by the terms 8-4; 6-6; 6-3-3 as applied to systems of organization used by different school systems?

ANSWER: By an 8-4 plan of organization is meant that the school program is divided into 8 years of elementary education and 4 years of secondary education. Similarly 6-6 means six years of elementary and 6 years of junior-senior education, and 6-3-3 means 6 years of elementary, 3 years of junior high school and 3 years of senior high school education.

QUESTION: Which of these systems of organization does the Kingston schools now have?

ANSWER: Kingston schools are organized under the 8-4 plan.

QUESTION: What system of organization will the Kingston schools have when the new junior high school is built?

ANSWER: Kingston school system will then be organized under the 6-3-3 plan.

QUESTION: Are there any advantages to be gained by changing to a 6-3-3 system of organization?

ANSWER: The 6-3-3 plan of organization offers many advantages not easily obtained in an 8-4 system. Among these advantages are: 1. more direct attention to the needs of individual pupils; 2. more comprehensive provisions for guidance; and 3. a broader and more flexible program of studies.

Three Persons Are Drowning Victims In Erie County

Buffalo, N. Y., April 27 (AP)—Three persons were drowned in Erie county yesterday as the temperature soared into the 80s for the third consecutive day.

In Pre-Dawn Swim
In Lawtons a 34-year-old man was drowned while he was on a pre-dawn swimming party. Friends of Franklin Bennett told police the man disappeared under the waters of a creek and they were unable to locate him. His brother found his body ten hours later a few miles downstream.

Fifteen-year-old Norma Williams of Gowanda in southern Erie county was drowned when she apparently slipped into deep water while she was wading in Cattaraugus creek. Her companion said she could not find the girl in the murky water.

Advertising Assn. Asked to Help in Propaganda Fight

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., April 27 (AP)—The American Assn. of Advertising Agencies was asked today to train foreign colleagues in their methods as part of a voluntary program to combat Communist propaganda. Theodore S. Reppel, member of a committee named by President Eisenhower, outlined the proposal to the 40th annual meeting of the association.

The plan, still tentative, he said is for each U. S. agency to train a selected foreign advertising man for three months at $20 a day.

"Our hope is that the U. S. government and/or the European Productivity administration will agree to underwrite the expense of travel to and from the fellow's home country," said Reppel.

Reppel is chairman of the Advertising Organization Committee, one of about 40 "people to people" committees appointed last year by the President.

The committees are supposed to supplement government information channels in the "war of ideas," Reppel said.

The exchange of foreign advertising men is designed to "export" knowledge of United States marketing methods.

Attacks Anew On Rights Veto

New York, April 27 (AP)—State Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz has renewed his attack on Gov. Averell Harriman's veto of the bill for a civil rights bureau.

Lefkowitz, the only Republican in the Harriman administration, drafted the measure, which would have established the bureau in the attorney general's office.

On Thursday, Lefkowitz said he was "shocked" by the governor's veto.

Yesterday he criticized Harriman for failing to heed the appeal of a group of Negro civic leaders that he hold public hearings on the bill.

Lefkowitz said "the enemies of civil rights have scored a smashing victory" in the governor's action.

Is Due in Athens

Athens, April 27 (AP)—The U. S. Embassy said today President Eisenhower's special Middle East envoy, James P. Richards, will arrive in Athens tomorrow for a three-day stay. He is expected to confer with Premier Constantine Karamanlis and other Greek officials.

Richards is on his way to Bonn to confer with Secretary of State Dulles who called for him to interrupt his current visits to Middle East countries.

If Mom Keeps Crying 'Wolf,' No Wonder He Won't Obey

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Marvin's mother came out of the market just as he was pocketing a tangerine from the sidewalk fruit stand. She paused, shifted her bag of groceries from one hip to the other and said, "Put that back—or a policeman will get you."

He ignored her. Instead of returning the fruit, he darted down the street. At the corner he turned and unhesitatingly proceeded to peel it. By the time his mother drew abreast of him, he had nearly finished eating it. Resignedly she said, "O. K. You'll get it some day, you'll see."

She was right. Some day, Marvin may indeed get it. But it won't be his fault. It will be the fault of bad training—discipline by threat of disaster. For years, he's been hounded by warnings like these:

"Stop fooling with gas jet—or you'll blow the house up."

"Come out of that puddle or you'll catch your death of cold."

"Stop leaning out that window or you'll break your neck."

An enterprising child, Marvin long since discovered that disobeying these demands did not result in the threatened explosion, pneumonia, broken bones. Gradually, he transferred trust of his mother's experience with reality to his own limited experience of it—and to act on his belief that he could get away with anything.

This is a pity. Sooner or later a policeman does become the consequence of stealing other people's property. When the threat Marvin believes empty becomes real, his sense of angry betrayal can turn him into a delinquent child.

As disasters are not always the consequence of children's misbehavior, we are mistaken to suggest they are. All we gain by our unrealistic threats is their contempt for realistic danger.

We invoke disasters to make them do as we wish because we have so little respect for what we wish.

Had Marvin's mother respect for her own wishes, she'd never have mentioned a punishing policeman to him. Her own desire to see that tangerine replaced would have been more important than any policeman's desire to see it replaced.

When we ourselves feel no respect for our wishes, children lose it, too. It's only then that we have to delegate control of them to disasters—to punishing outside agencies like policemen, germs and broken bones.

A Tioga county grand jury, yesterday returned the indictment, which charged the baby had been stabbed on March 28. The infant's body was found April 19 on a dump near the Robbins home. A coroner said death was caused by a puncture wound in the chest.

Miss Robbins is held in the Tioga County Jail.

Blaze Destroys Illinois School; $500,000 Damage

Savanna, Ill., April 27 (AP)—Some 100 students fled last night as flames, apparently caused by faulty wiring, destroyed Savanna High School causing damage estimated at from $300,000 to $500,000.

No students were injured, but two firefighters, Robert Lamers and Victor Wagner were hospitalized with burns. Lamers also suffered a broken ankle and Wagner a broken leg.

Police Magistrate Earle Engleking estimated damage. He said several hundred additional students would have been in the wood and brick building at a scheduled dance had the fire broken out 30 minutes later.

Fred Hungerford, Savanna, fire chief, gave the cause of the blaze and said flames licked rapidly through a ventilator system in the two-story building. Firefighters were hampered by low water pressure, cars parked in the area and a large crowd.

Flames shot about 50 feet into the air and were visible in Missouri, across the Mississippi river from Savanna, a community of 5,058.

Saugerties Area Schools Slate Education Week

Education Week will be observed in the Saugerties Central School system next week, it was announced by Dr. Grant D. Morse, superintendent of Saugerties schools.

The schedule is as follows:

Main Street and Hill Street schools, May 3, from 7 to 9:30. Area Schools (Asbury, Blue Mountain, Cedar Grove, Flatbush, Glasco, Katsbaan, Malden, Mt. Marion, Saxton, West Camp, and West Saugerties) Friday, May 10, from 7 to 9:30.

Dates Staggered

Different dates have been planned for the village schools and for the area schools in order that parents who have children in both may be able to visit both places.

Parents and friends of the schools are invited to visit the Adult Education exhibit in the high school auditorium May 3, from 7 to 9:30. All adult members of classes are invited to participate in the exhibit, even if the class that was attended is now no longer in session, Dr. Morse said.

Open house is a well-established custom in the local school system. It has been observed for a long period of years. It is looked upon by parents, students, and teachers as an opportunity for all to meet informally in the classroom. It gives the boy and girl a chance to show his parents some of the work that he has been doing, he said.

May Meet Teacher

It gives the parent a chance to talk informally with the teacher, and either to be reassured, or to attempt to discover in what ways pupil improvement can be brought about. A record of attendance is usually kept in each room, and in some classrooms, nearly 100 per cent attendance of all parents concerned has been recorded in some years, Dr. Morse said.

The school faculty invites all parents and friends of the schools to visit in any and all of the buildings and rooms, regardless of whether their children attend there or not.

"(The Republicans) will project the myth of 'modern Republicanism' as their principal issue." — Carmine DeSapio.

"I'm very sorry..." — Thomas J. Higgins, charged with the hammer slaying of 19-year-old Patricia Ruhland.

"I'm allergic to pheasants." — Dr. E. L. Cheatum, chief of the state bureau of game, asked to speak on that subject, which also figures in his slander suit against his former boss, Louis Wehle.

Deadline Difficulties

New York (AP)—Dinners and deadlines are again causing opening night problems on Broadway. The league of New York Theaters recently asked press critics if they would mind an 8:30 p. m. curtain, because so many first nighters have trouble making the 8 o'clock curtain that has become traditional. The critics answered that they need that extra half hour in order to be able to see a complete show—usually about 2½ hours—and still be able to get reviews written by newspaper press time.

The Name's Duke

New York (AP)—After years as a dual musical personality, Vernon Duke has decided he is Vernon Duke. A collaborator on Broadway shows and the other author of such hits as "April in Paris" and "Autumn in New York," Duke has until now done popular tunes done under that name and also written serious compositions under the name of Vladimir Dukelsky. Both swing or symphony henceforth, he says, will be written under the name Duke.

Children Hater Fined

Sevenoaks, England, April 27 (AP)—A wealthy retired businessman who hates children was fined 40 pounds ($112) yesterday for sending anonymous letters to bereaved mothers telling them the deaths of their "brats" were a blessing to the country. ### Won't Oppose Trial remained on Harriman's desk this morning. It was understood that he had completed action on most of those bills but that they were awaiting final processing before his decisions were announced.

Knoxville, Tenn., April 27 (AP)—The government has decided not to oppose a jury trial for 17 persons charged with criminal contempt of Federal Court in the Clinton High School integration cases. The decision was revealed in a 15-page memorandum filed in Federal District Court here yesterday by U. S. District Atty. John C. Crawford. The document also listed reasons why the government does not believe the cases should be dismissed, as requested by defense lawyers. The defense also petitioned for a jury trial.

One of the measures he approved today will require school districts to continue special classes for the mentally retarded to the age of 21. In many instances, special training is stopped at age 16.

The Joint Legislative Committee on Mental Retardation sponsored the bill.

Against Special Rooms

At the same time, the governor vetoed a bill that would have allowed local governments to establish special rest homes for treatment of mentally ill aged persons. He said the measure went contrary to "the long-established theme of" state care of the mentally ill.

Among 25 bills the governor vetoed yesterday were a dozen measures that would have increased pension benefits of police and firemen in Troy, Buffalo and several Westchester county communities.

Harriman said that similar bills had been vetoed in 1944 and every year since 1950. He maintained that the pension funds were not actuarially sound and that no provisions had been made to meet the added costs.

Signs for 40 Hours

But he signed legislation requiring a maximum 40-hour work week for police and firemen in all towns in Westchester county. It is similar to a law enacted last year fixing a 40-hour week for policemen in cities throughout the state.

The governor said "technical objections" had been raised against the bill. But he added that, since it does not take effect until July 1, 1958, corrections can be made at the 1958 session of the Legislature.

It was sponsored by Sen. Frank S. McCullough, Rye Republican.

Another bill approved by the governor establishes a program for protection of small watersheds. It provides for state financial assistance to counties who undertake anti-flood and anti-erosion projects.

Sen. Wheeler Milmoie, Canastota Republican, was the sponsor.

degree. The condition of Curtis had not improved and he was unable to leave his home for arraignment. With the consent of District Attorney Howard C. St. John the troopers took Justice Glenford Myers of Saugerties to the Curtis home and he was arraigned on a charge of assault, first degree, and Curtis was held for grand jury action. He was released in his own recognizance. It was stated Curtis is suffering from a rheumatic fever heart ailment.

The alcoholic law charge is being held in abeyance.

Corporal E. P. Shannon and Troopers W. L. Shurter and R. J. Flynn conducted the investigation.

Ulster Landing Out Kitchen Is Gutted

Fire early today destroyed an outside summer kitchen on the property of Salvatore Castiglione, Ulster Landing.

Fire Chief Louis J. Clausi of the East Kingston Fire Department said the fire apparently was caused by a short circuit. The building, about 20 by 30 feet, was destroyed and all equipment was lost, the chief said.

The building was located 50 feet from the Castiglione residence and the latter was threatened by the flames for a time, Chief Clausi said.

East Kingston firemen were summoned at 3:15 a. m. and the recall was sounded at 5 a. m.

feet deep around the courthouse. High winds during the storm blew down the front wall of a theater, but no one was hurt.

A drive-in theater was destroyed and other property damaged by high winds and heavy rains at Cameron. The Little river overflowed its banks near the city, forcing families along the lowlands to flee.

Highways and city streets were closed in many parts of the state.

Highest in 50 Years

The cloudbursts extended into the hardest hit drought region of west and southwest Texas. A deluge of 2.28 inches fell at San Angelo, where President Eisenhower visited on his drouth tour. Lakes and reservoirs were on the rise, but there was no immediate flood scare.

Some ranchers along Spring Creek said the creek was up 21 feet, the biggest rise they had seen in 50 years. Some families in the lowlands may have to evacuate.

Creeks were spilling over on roads between Brownwood and Coleman, which got 4 inches of rain yesterday. Ranches around San Angelo reported up to 5 inches yesterday.

Further south, water was a foot and a half deep over a bridge at Christoval, closing U. S. 277. Del Rio got an official 3.4 of an inch of rain.

18 Burned to Death

Cairo, April 27 (AP)—Eighteen persons were burned to death in a fire which destroyed 325 mud and straw houses of Al Ahraz, a village eight miles north of here, Egyptian press reports said today. About 1,000 persons were made homeless. The report said the blaze was set off by sparks from a hearth fire on which a woman was baking cakes for Bairam, the Moslem feast starting May 1 to mark the end of the month long Moslem fasting period. A high wind sent the fire racing through the village.

Veterans' Rights, Benefits Listed

Howard C. Shurter, county director Veterans' Service Agency, and William Hartman, state veteran counselor NYS Division of Veterans Affairs, submit another in a series of articles on rights and benefits of veterans, servicemen and their dependents:

Tax Exemption—Persons who expect to apply for real property tax exemption are advised to obtain written evidence that they have received the federal or state benefits for which they are claiming tax exemption. Local boards of assessors may ask for proof of receipt of specific benefits for which exemption is being claimed and applicants should be able to furnish it immediately. Otherwise they may lose a full year of tax exemption because they cannot show evidence of the exempt monies which they claim. Interested persons will be assisted by this agency in requesting written proof of benefits received from any governmental agency concerned. An example of proof which may be obtained would be a statement from the Veterans Administration District or Region Office showing the amount of compensation or pension received by a veteran or his survivors on which they are claiming exemption.

Medical—The Armed Forces Dependents Medical Care Act of 1956 does not authorize treatment for a period of hospitalization in a civilian facility in excess of 365 days for any one admission. Any exceptions to this rule must be specifically authorized by the government. Treatment also is not authorized in a facility other than one which meets the official definition of a hospital except in cases of emergency. In addition, domiciliary care or prolonged convalescent treatment is not permitted.

Civil Service—Applications must be filed by May 17, 1957, for the following New York state civil service examinations to be held on June 15: Consultant Public Health Nurse (Hospitals), Director of Nursing, Supervising Nurse, Head Nurse, Senior Nurse, Principal Thoracic Surgeon, Senior Dentist, Senior Welfare Consultant (Medical), Intermediate Psychiatric Social Worker, Intermediate Medical Social Worker, Senior Economist, Senior Sociologist, State Veteran Counselor, Bank Examiner, Recreation Supervisor, Court Stenographer (Supreme Court, 8th Judicial District), Assistant Building Construction Engineer, Associate Building Construction Engineer, and Aquatic Biologist.

Applications will be accepted until further notice for the positions of Senior Social Workers (public assistance, child welfare, medical), Youth Parole Worker, Social Workers (in medical social work, psychiatric social work and workmen's compensation).

Korean Veterans—Korean service ribbons are of U. S. blue with narrow vertical white stripes at either end of the ribbon and a broader vertical white stripe in the center. The award is granted for at least 30 days consecutive duty and 60 days non-consecutive duty within the territorial limits of Korea or on waters adjacent to it. Service must have been performed between June 27, 1950, and July 27, 1954. Appropriate bronze arrow heads and stars are also awarded for specific campaign situations.

Questions about the rights and benefits of veterans, servicemen or their dependents may be submitted for individual attention to the State Division of Veterans Affairs and the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency, 32 Main street, Kingston.

Do You Remember

By SOPHIE MILLER

I see the board of police commissioners approved new sirens and red warning lights for our police patrol cars. The patrolmen and entire force will be equipped with new .38 calibre Smith & Wesson revolvers. "Some of the older type revolvers were in use for more than 20 years. Money for the new revolvers was provided for in the department budget and the police board last month authorized purchase of them."

Now let's go back 40 years for back in May of 1917 the Kingston Police Department just got rid of its horses. No doubt old timers remember the reliable old Black Maria, as the patrol wagon was then called, and also the ambulance, which were hauled by the team of horses. For those days they were swift and efficient. The officers all seemed rough and rugged and tall to me, and they handled most any situation in Rondout quickly. They used saddle horses too, to patrol the outlying sections of the city. The team of horses at the time were bought by Joseph Worem of Tannersville, while the saddle horse, Elmer Palen bought and immediately sold to Luther Deyo of Rosendale.

A Ford, with a specially built ambulance body, took the place of the horse-drawn Black Maria, while the saddle horse was replaced by an Emerson auto, which was built right here at the Emerson auto plant on Grand street, later occupied by the Electrol concern. As I remember, the Black Maria was something like the station wagons of today. They could put people in from the back of the truck and close the doors in case they were violent.

In those days, the men on the force often were known for their powerful build and strength. Two of them, policeman William Ryan and Patrick J. White who retired from active duty on January 16, 1921 were such men. Officer Ryan had served 27 years, while Officer White rounded out some 25 years.

I remember him later taking care of things at the Orpheum, or perhaps it was during his service days. He could pull young rowdies right out of the seats, and if they wound their feet around the seats, and all went, although they were attached to the floor. His strength was unyielding, although I never saw him strike anyone, his voice alone boomed out to cover the tallest youth.

Came summer, and the young ones liked to be around the creek, sometimes past their bedtime, so a call would be put in by their parents. "My Willie isn't home, I'm afraid he's down by the water." I remember how Officer White used to walk those little ones up the Broadway hill, past Abel street, gently he would prod them with the nightstick. No doubt he saved many a life that way, who knows. I am sure they never thanked him.

In those days we had good sleigh-riding and lots of it during the winter. We had the hills downtown but they were all dangerous. Meadow street, Broadway, Wurts street into Abel street. I remember when we would see Officer White come around the bend, the world would go out. "Here he comes," and we would take off in flight, afraid to appear again that afternoon or early evening. Who knows, perhaps, many of us have him to thank that we are still here. Believe me no one, young or old, ever dared to sass Officer White. It just was not done in those days without dire consequence.

Husband Is Held

Rochester, N. Y., April 27 (P)—George Phifer was held today on a charge of first degree manslaughter in the death of his wife, who, police say, was beaten on Thursday night. The dead woman, Mrs. Jessie Phifer, 38, whose former husband had been shot and killed four years ago, suffered a fractured skull, internal injuries and a broken arm from the beating. Police said that before she died yesterday at a hospital she told them her husband entered her apartment through a window and knocked her down.

DiCapua Two-Hits New Paltz in UCL Encounter

Sophomore righthander Dom DiCapua stifled New Paltz Central on two hits as he pitched Marlboro Central to its first victory in the UCL, an 8-0 shut-out yesterday at Marlboro.

DiCapua took over from Mike Caserto in the first inning after the latter passed the first two batters up. He then went on to give up two singles and struck out 10 while passing just two.

New Paltz Hitters
Tom Roberts and Dave McDowell got the only safe blows. Otherwise, DiCapua was in complete command.

Marlboro sewed up their first win in four attempts in the sixth inning with a six-run explosion off Jack Campbell. Up until then, it was an old-fashioned hurling duel.

DiCapua and Doug Swartz got the big hits in the uprising, doubling. Richie Mandia also doubled earlier in the game for the only other extra base hit. In all, Marlboro combed Campbell for 13 hits with DiCapua the leader with three.

New Paltz has now dropped three straight and stands last in the race.

Harriman Signs Exemption Bill

Albany, N. Y., April 27 (AP)—Gov. Harriman has signed legislation that exempts sponsors of sandlot baseball teams from Workmen's Compensation liability.

The sponsors, he said yesterday in a memorandum, should "be commended and not penalized for their good work by being saddled with burdens that are violative of legal concepts."

Harriman also said baseball leagues for youngsters should provide accident and liability insurance coverage. The Little League, for boys between 8 and 12 years old, provides such insurance.

The legislation approved by Harriman was drafted after a Workmen's Compensation Board referee had held that a team's sponsor should pay a $400 dental bill for a 15-year-old player injured in a game. The decision was reversed by the board, which said there was no true employer-employee relationship between the boy and the sponsor.

The bill was introduced through the Assembly Rules Committee by Assemblyman Louis Wallach, Queens Republican.

The NCAA championship North Carolina basketball team had seven individual records last season. Six were made by Lenny Rosenbluth, the other by Pete Brennan.

Littlefield Keeps Busy Traveling

Chicago (NEA)—Dick Littlefield has only been in the majors since 1950. At 31, he's still young, yet has had plenty of time to tie a record established by Bobo Newsome.

Littlefield, now doing his left-handed pitching for the Cubs, has been with nine major league teams.

Littlefield started with the Red Sox in 1950, finished the season at Fenway Park, but then the switches started to move. Traded to the White Sox, he lasted five weeks there, finishing the year with the St. Louis Browns. He was with Detroit, back to St. Louis, then to Baltimore, Pittsburgh, the Cardinals, Giants, Dodgers and now the Cubs.

His record was established this year. Traded by the Giants to Brooklyn in the Jackie Robinson deal, he was on the Brooklyn roster for 34 days. The deal was voided before he pitched a ball.

Rich—in Money
Baltimore (NEA)—Paul Richards has four bonus players on his Orioles' roster, none of whom can be farmed out until June at the earliest.

Michigan State's 1956-57 basketball team played before crowds of more than 10,000 on 10 different occasions.

Dartmouth sophomore pitcher Arthur Quirk was a baseball star at South Kingston High in Wakefield, R. I.

Detroit's Charley Maxwell set a club record for left-handed batters in 1956 when he hit 28 home runs.

Ted Shutout But Hitting Robust .405

New York, April 27 (AP)—Despite a hitless day at Yankee Stadium, Ted Williams is off and winning with a .405 average for his first nine games.

Ted was shut out for the first time yesterday by Tom Sturdivant and Tommy Byrne. Although he walked once during Boston's 6-2 victory over the New York Yankees he lost 50 points in one afternoon.

"I don't know if I'm hitting 400 any more," said Williams in the Red Sox clubhouse.

"When you go for the collar at this time of the year it really sets you down."

"I don't know what there is about this park," he said. "Maybe it's because I'm always conscious of the fence in right and try to pull all the time."

"Everybody has a park he finds tough to hit in. I certainly haven't hit here in the last few years."

Williams, 38, said he felt fit and ready for a good season for the first time in many springs.

Site of Open Suits Hogan

Toledo, O.—(NEA)—Ben Hogan has probably enjoyed more success at historic Inverness than on any other course he has played.

Hogan, who hasn't won the United States Open since 1953, has competed in five tournaments at Inverness and was in the winner's circle four times.

That's an 800 percentage and even a Hogan doesn't hit much better in any league.

When Hogan returns to Inverness for the U. S. Open, June 13-15, after an absence of nearly a decade, the winningest Irishman ever to come out of Dublin, Tenn., will find the same fast greens that he mastered four out of five times.

He could do it again.

Fullmer, Foe To End Workouts

Chicago, April 27 (AP)—Middleweight champion Gene Fullmer and challenger Ray Robinson will conclude heavy workouts this weekend for Wednesday's title fight at Chicago Stadium.

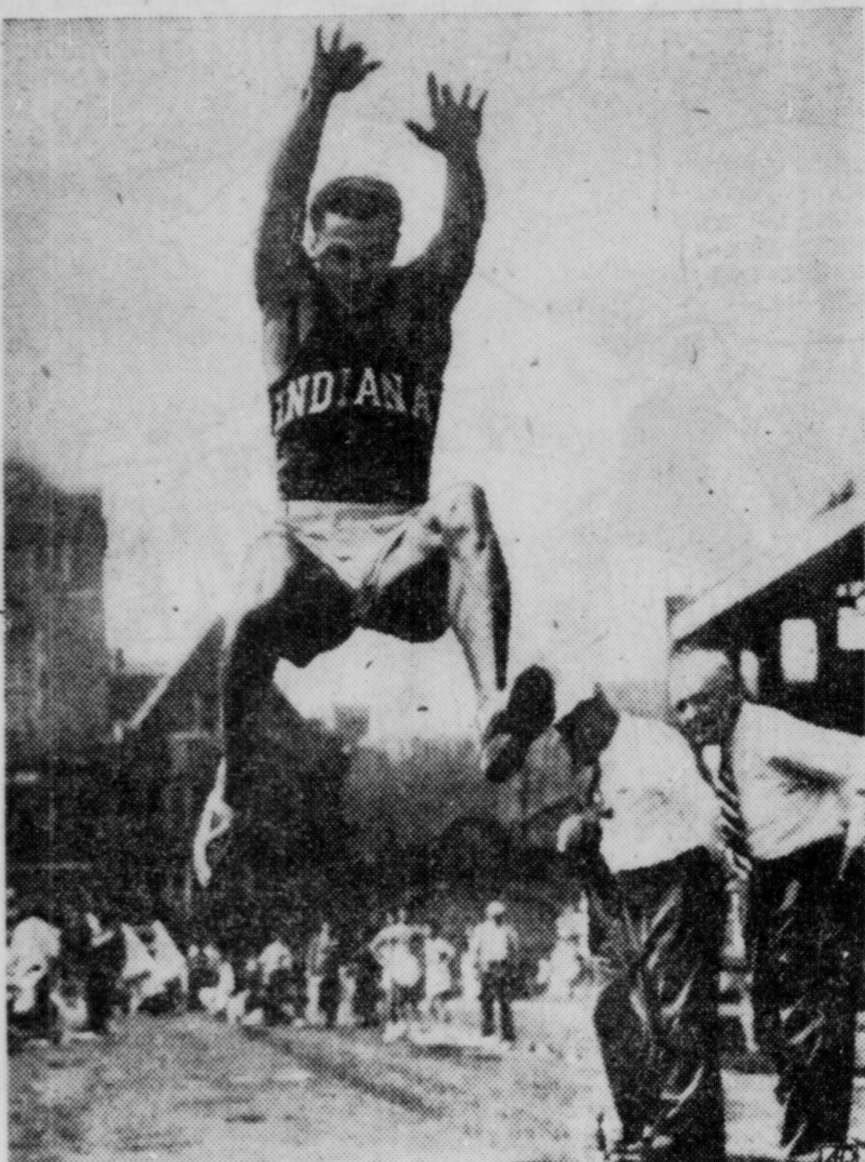

Fullmer, who put in three vicious rounds against sparman Archie Whitfield, ends his heavy gym work today.

Robinson also put in three rounds yesterday and looked exceptionally good. Sugar Ray will continue drills through Sunday.

Fullmer and Whitfield sparred as if the title were at stake at the Tam O'Shanter Country Club training camp.

Mary Jensen, Fullmer's manager, said "Gene is rougher and stronger now than at any time I've ever seen him. He will cut Robinson in half."

George Gairford, Sugar Ray's manager, said "I'm satisfied with his condition."

BELL BREAKS MEET JUMP MARK—Indiana's Olympic broad jump champion Greg Bell sails through the air as he broke meet jump record at annual Penn Relays in Philadelphia (April 26). He jumped 26' 1 1/2" to top his own 1956 Penn Relays mark of 25' 3/4". World mark is 26' 8 1/4". (AP Wirephoto)

Champion Featured Guest Naomi Venable Speaks At Wiltwyck Meeting

Miss Naomi Venable, New York State Women's Amateur golf champion, was the featured guest at a meeting of clubwomen at the Wiltwyck Country Club.

Miss Venable, who is a member of the Dutchess Golf and Country Club in Poughkeepsie, also spoke and gave some interesting pointers on tournament play. She stressed the importance of knowing the rules and of taking any questions direct to the tourney committee for decisions.

Highlighting the business end of the meeting was several reports from committees on plans for the coming season. Mrs. Prescott C. Newell reported for the tournament committee. Mrs. Howard Terwilliger on the social and Mrs. Mathew H. Dietschman on the handicaps.

The latter explained the new "current" system of fixing handicaps. Mrs. Hugh Elwyn, general chairman of the Ladies' Golf committee, presided at the session.

McMeekin Answers Questions
Dave McMeekin, club pro, presided over a question and answer discussion. He discussed the rules of etiquette with special emphasis on winter rules, courtesy and penalties.

McMeekin expects to hold further such discussions and also is planning a series of instruction classes for both women and children on Mondays and Thursdays. McMeekin or Mrs. Elwyn have more information on the program for those who are interested.

May has been set for the first ladies' day tournament and will start at 9:30 a. m. Lunch for both golf and social members will be served. As soon as the different classes are organized, 'A' and 'B' groups will engage in an 18-hole affair.

Tight Baseball Order of Day in Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)

Tight baseball was the order of the day for nearly 8,000 Eastern League baseball fans watching home teams sweep yesterday's second openers.

One game went 11 innings, another also was decided by one run and the third was a 2-0 shutout.

The Albany Senators capitalized on Babe Daskalakis' 11th-inning triple and edged the Springfield Giants 5-4. The Victory before 1,436 Albany fans gave them sole possession of second place, a half-game behind the Schenectady Blue Jays.

With a 2,808 looking "on" at Binghamton, the Triplets rallied for two runs in the seventh sparked by Bobby Deakin's triple and tripped the Blue Jays 3-2.

Left-hander John Isaac pleased 3,596 at Syracuse, the day's biggest crowd, with a three-hit shutout of the Reading Indians. He struck out seven and walked two.

Daskalakis opened the Albany 11th with a triple after the game had been tied at 4-4 since the eighth. After two intentional walks filled the bases, Hal Buckwalter knocked in the winning run with a sacrifice fly to left.

Deakin tied the score 2-2 at Binghamton when his triple scored Richie Windle, who had singled. Bobby Maness, who ran for Deakin, scored the winning run on a passed ball.

At Syracuse, Tom Sarina drove in both runs with a third-inning single.

Fireworks in Detroit
Briggs Says New Owners 'Dumped' Him

Detroit, April 27 (AP)—The unglamorous divorce of the Briggs name from Detroit baseball was still producing fireworks today, with ex-general manager Walter O. (Spike) Briggs saying he was "dumped" by the new owners.

The chairman of the board of directors and the club's president said simply that wasn't quite the case.

Bitter at bowing out of Tiger baseball after what he called "21 years of frustration," the 45-year-old Briggs said some of the new owners, "used me so they could buy the club and then dumped me when they got things where they wanted them."

Whether Briggs quit or was fired, the fact remains that for the first time since his father, Walter O. Briggs Sr., bought into the Tigers in 1920, the family has no official connection with Detroit baseball.

"This is a fine way to go," Briggs said sarcastically. "They wanted my resignation and they got it. They were out to get me and they did it."

After stepping down as president when an 11-man syndicate purchased the club last summer, Briggs took title as a director executive president and general manager.

He lost all of them yesterday in a move that surprised almost no one.

Resignation Ready
"I had a letter of resignation prepared—just in case—ever since they bought the club," Briggs said.

Briggs was referring to John E. Fetzer, chairman of the board and Harvey Hansen, president since last Friday.

"I could see what they were after and that it might be a long session, so I didn't ever bring them a good start," Briggs added. "I told them I assumed they wanted my resignation and they said they did. So I got out the letter, dated it and gave it to them."

Hansen and Fetzer said they made no effort to change Briggs' decision because they felt "his mind was made up."

Hot-Headed Golfers Set To Be Called on Carpet

Louisville, Ky., April 27 (AP)—What to do with golfers with gripes who demonstrate their disgust before the paying public will be a serious subject in Fort Worth next week.

The tournament committee of the Professional Golfers Assn. will take up at least seven such cases before play opens in the Texas city's Colonial Open.

The problem came to a boil yesterday when George Bayer of Los Angeles took a 17 on Seneca course's par-4 17th hole. Bayer, one of the game's longest hitters, is capable of covering the 395-yard hole with a driver and a midiron.

Rising Discontent
Harvey Raynor, PGA supervisor said the problem rose out of discontent among competitors who felt they had no chance to finish in the money in the $30,000 Kentucky Derby Open tournament.

PGA rules require that all players must continue in any tournament unless released by the sponsors.

After an outbreak of bad scores in the Derby Open, many asked release to travel to Texas where they might prepare for the Colonial Open. They were denied.

In addition to Bayer's 17, two players, Don January and Doug Higgins each had a 10 on one hole. Ernie Vossler took a 46 on Seneca's back nine after recording a 38 on the front.

Showdown In Derby
Despite the background ruckus, a red-hot showdown for the Derby meet's top money in a $30,000 jackpot continued to boil.

Bill Casper Jr. of Bonita, Calif., was in the driver's seat with a 207—six under par—after yesterday's workmanlike par 71.

His closest challengers were Johnny Pott, a young bayou belter from Shreveport, La.; Peter Thomson from Melbourne, Australia, and Jack Fleck, former National Open champion from Rochester, Mich., each with 209.

Adcock Swinging Biggest Bat Braves Early Season Power Satisfying Haney's Wish

(By The Associated Press)

Just before the season started, Manager Fred Haney gave his Milwaukee Braves the once-over and commented, "Frankly, I'd like more power." Great man for jokes, that Haney.

What team leads the National League in home runs? Milwaukee, with 13. Who's the individual league leader in home runs? The Braves' Joe Adcock, with four.

That just about explains how Milwaukee has muscled into first place in the early going of the pennant race, winning seven of eight. In their last two games, the Braves have belted eight home runs and had a bristling barrage of 15 consecutive runs on homers.

The startling statistic, powered by Adcock's five runs batted in on two homers last night, didn't come to an end until the Braves "relaxed" to score their final two runs on a walk, sacrifice and two singles in a 9-2 breeze past Cincinnati's Redlegs.

Spahn Stiffles Reds
Cincinnati, after winning four in a row, didn't have a chance against Warren Spahn, the veteran lefty who now stands 41-14 against the Redlegs lifetime. He's beaten them twice this year in his 3-0 record. The Braves are 4-0 vs Cincinnati.

With the victory, the Braves opened a full game edge over the Brooklyn Dodgers, who were whipped by the Pittsburgh Pirates 7-1. Philadelphia jumped into third at .500 by beating the New York Giants 5-0 on rookie Don Cardwell's four-hitter in his first major league victory.

Rain stopped St. Louis at Chicago after four innings.

Red Sox Win
In the American, Ted Williams was 0-for-4, but Boston's Red Sox defeated the New York Yankees 6-2 and moved into second place, a game behind the Chicago White Sox, who defeated the Kansas City 4-3. Detroit ended a three-game slump, beating Cleveland 5-0. Baltimore knocked off Washington 4-3.

Adcock's second homer off starter-loser Johnny Klippstein was the first grand-slammer of the season in the NL. It came in the third and built a 5-0 lead for the 36-year-old Spahn. Johnny Logan and Del Crandall hit the other Milwaukee home runs.

Pittsburgh's Bob Purkey, who had been 0-3 lifetime vs the Dodgers, picked up his second victory over the champs with a nine-hitter. The 27-year-old right-hander, gained only his third complete game in 22 starts, lost his shutout on Duke Snider's home run in the eighth.

Thomas Homers
Frank Thomas, replacing Dale Long at first in a shift that put eight righthanded hitters against losing Dodger southpaw Johnny Podres, hit a two-run homer as the Bucs cut a four-game losing string.

Cardwell, a 6-4 righthander, gave up two hits in the first inning, another in the fifth and the last in the ninth while shutting out the Giants behind Chico Fernandez' three-run homer. Johnny Antonelli lit it.

Dave Sisler, a righthander who never lost (4-0) to the Yankees beat New York for the second time this year, although giving up homers to Enos Slaughter and Gil McDougald. Jackie Jensen slugged a two-run double and Jim Piersall bagged it with a three-run homer. Tom Sturdivant was the loser.

White Sox Homers
Jim Rivera and Sherm Lollar hit home runs for the White Sox in Billy Pierce's second victory. But he needed relief help from Bob Keegan and Paul LaPalme to beat Tom Morgan. Lou Skizas homered for the A's, gaining the AL lead for No. 5.

Duke Maas, 0-7 last season and without a victory since 1955, gave the Indians only four singles after relieving Tiger ace Frank Lary, who was struck on the knee by a Vic Wertz line drive in the fourth. Al Kaline drove in four runs for the Tigers with a homer and two doubles as Bob Lemon lost his second.

Baltimore rallied to beat the Senators and Camillo Pascual. Winning righthander Ray Moore tied it 3-3 with a fifth-inning home run and Joe Ginsburg put it away with an RBI double in the eighth.

Elorde Wins Title
Nagoya, Japan, April 27 (AP)—Flash Elorde of the Philippines slugged his way to the Oriental lightweight crown tonight, outpointing Japanese lightweight champion Hideto Kobayashi in a 12-rounder at Kanayama Stadium. Elorde weighed 133½, Kobayashi 134½.

Barber--How long has your wife been away?

Summer Widower--Oh, about two sets of dishes.

Budget--Method of planned worrying.

A woman got on a street car with five children. She busied herself seating them. A sailor arose and gave her his seat. The sailor asked:

Sailor--Are all those children yours, Madam, or is it a picnic?

Woman (snappingly)--They are all mine and it's no picnic.

How much happier we should be summer evenings if Noah had swatted the male mosquito before he left the ark.

Man--And to think that I mortgaged the house to send my boy to college and all he does is go out with girls, drink and smoke.

Friend--Do you regret it?

Man--Yes, I do. I should have gone myself.

A small church in Bowden, Ga., made a "deal" with a local taxi firm to carry anyone within the city limits to church or Sunday school without charge.

Politician--All that I am, I owe to my mother.

Progress is wonderful. They claim that there's a new rifle that fires so rapidly it shoots six

Mrs. Green--You never take any good advice.

Mr. Green--You're lucky I don't, or you wouldn't be married today.

Becoming disgusted with the late hours his daughter's callers kept, the father turned the lights out after nine. From then on, he noticed they came in after nine.

Friend--Your husband looks like a brilliant man--I'll bet he knows everything.

Woman--Don't be silly--he doesn't suspect a thing.

Teacher Advises On Ways to Treat Backward Pupils

Pittsburgh, April 27 (AP)—Teachers of slow-learning children were cautioned today not to be too easy on them.

Agnes Mahoney, principal of Public School No. 9, Indianapolis, said in a speech prepared for the International Council for exceptional children:

"We must remember that exceptional children are like all other children in many more ways than they are different from them. They need the same training that normal children need, but more of it."

Could Do Better
"It is as easy to excuse the shortcomings of slow-learning children on the basis of their limited abilities that at times one finds a teacher who is requiring even less of her pupils than they might justly be expected to accomplish."

(Educators use the term "exceptional" to include mentally and physically handicapped as well as gifted children.)

Miss Mahoney urged that a teacher of slow-learning children occasionally compare the work of her group with that of normal children as well as the work of other special classes.

"All children can't become Abraham Lincoln, Einstein or Pasteur (discoverer of pasteurization process)," Miss Mahoney said, "but they have every right from the standpoint of their own mental integrity to succeed in some activity that has neither too simple nor discouragingly complex material."

Must Judge Quality
She said "learning must include the three 'R's' but that the teacher must be willing to accept at face value a different kind and quality of participation from different pupils."

For example, she said, in arithmetic "it is more important to stress accuracy than speed."

Miss Mahoney said educators must plan for the handicapped even though "the public in general has failed to recognize that it is not charity or a waste of money . . . to provide special treatment and training for these exceptional children."

"Education can be equal education," she said, "only when it recognizes that people are different. Certainly one lesson for all is a fallacy."

Gales Sweep Atlantic

London, April 27 (AP)—Gales swept the North Atlantic today but there was no immediate concern here for the safety of Mayflower II, replica of the Pilgrim father's vessel. The 180-ton wooden barque was sailing a southerly route to Plymouth, Mass., and believed to be well south of the storm area. Mayflower II last reported yesterday morning to the only station in Britain strong enough to reach her. She was then about 200 miles west of the Spanish coast. "But we have no cause to believe there is anything the matter with the Mayflower," the station said late this afternoon. "She is not on any reporting schedule and we may get a call from her later today."

Big Projects Are Port Ewen School

Bethlehem expects to produce at 100 per cent or more of capacity for the rest of 1957. Said Grace: "We're more optimistic about capacity operations today than we were three months ago." President C. M. White of Republic Steel Corp. asserted: "We anticipate operating rates will decline somewhat further during the summer lull but will pick up in the fall. We expect to earn more in 1957 than we did in 1956."

On Way to Record
Both Bethlehem and Youngstown were well on their way to a record earnings year. Each reported new highs in profits for the first quarter.

Also reporting impressive first quarter gains were the major oil companies: Standard of New Jersey's earnings for the period were up 15 per cent from a year ago, Texaco reported a 23 1/2 per cent rise, Gulf a 30 per cent increase.

Chrysler Steps Ahead
First quarter earnings reports of the "Big Three" automakers proved what previous sales figures had indicated for some time—Chrysler Corp., with its sweeping, fin-tailed models, had been stepping ahead at a brisker pace than its two big competitors, General Motors and Ford.

While Ford's first quarter earnings climbed 11.3 per cent, and General Motors' net dropped 7 1/2 per cent, Chrysler's profit shot up for a gain of more than 300 per cent. The Chrysler box score: Profits for the first three months of 1957 rocketed to more than 46 million dollars from less than 11 millions in the first quarter of 1956; sales, up 55 per cent, totaled $1,150,723,000.

Censure Two Colleges In Faculty Firing

New York, April 27 (AP)—The American Assn. of University Professors has placed the University of Nevada and Catawba College, Salisbury, N. C., on its censure list.

The association's annual convention voted yesterday to censure the administrations of the two institutions on the ground they violated academic freedom and tenure in firing certain faculty members.

The censure carries no legal weight but is regarded as a moral sanction. Some professors will not join the faculty of a college on the censure list.

The University of Nevada case involved Frank Richardson, associate professor of biology, who was dismissed by University President Minard W. Stout in 1954.

In the Catawba College case, the censure action involved the dismissal of three faculty members. The association said the three were entitled to "permanent or continuous tenure" in agreements with the college.

Suez Users . . .

said all this fully conformed to the convention and to the six requirements for a canal settlement endorsed by Egypt and the council last Oct. 13.

He said this went for "even the most delicate" of these requirements, which Secretary of State Dulles had called essential—chiefly insulation of canal operation from the politics "of any country."

Lacks Guarantee: Lodge
Most council members, however, expressed belief the declaration did not fully meet these requirements. U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge said that, lacking any provision for "organized cooperation" with the users, it contained no guarantee that the requirements would be carried out.

Georges-Picot said it did not guarantee freedom of navigation, cooperation with users or settlement of pending questions Dixon said that, for "insulation" purposes, the improvement fund should be put "in some independent bank."

Families Flee Fire

Montreal, April 27 (AP)—About 20 families were evacuated today from two brick tenement blocks in the city's east end after a fire caught hold in the roof. There were no casualties, although many of the families included children. The fire was reported shortly after midnight and was brought under control almost three hours later. Firemen said the blaze started at the rear of one building in an alleyway, and quickly climbed the wall into the roof. Many flats were badly damaged.
